Dear Recruiter,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Smart Contract Developer/Auditor role within your organization. I have a robust foundation in Computer Science and Cybersecurity, along with substantial experience as a Smart Contract Development and Security, I am eager to bring my skills and expertise to your esteemed team.

Currently working as an Independent Smart Contract Developer/Auditor, My portfolio currently covers over 40+ diverse codebases. I have expertise in auditing various protocols, including ERC20, ERC721, ERC1155, ERC4626, Web3 Gaming, Perpetual DEXes, Launchpads, Staking Contracts, Cross-Chain bridges, Liquid Staking Platforms, and more.

I was part of ZK Fellowship cohort organized by yAcademy. This program provides me with the opportunity to delve into ZK Tech, where I am learn the basics to audit codebases written in Rust and halo2.

My educational background includes a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, providing a solid foundation for my career. And four years of experience as a Software Developer, focusing primarily on Backend development, and two years as a web2 Security Engineer. Additionally, I hold certifications such as a Certified Ethical Hacker (CEHv10) and eLearnSecurity Junior Penetration Tester (eJPT).

To stay current with industry trends, I dedicate time to studying post-mortem reports, replicating hacks using Foundry, and actively engaging with audit reports from platforms like Solodit.

Adapting seamlessly to remote work, I have demonstrated effective collaboration with teams across distances. My dedication to the field is evident through my active GitHub profile and Medium Blog, serving as tangible Proof of Work (PoW) that showcases my accomplishments within the web3 sphere.

In conclusion, my diverse background spanning software development to cybersecurity, coupled with an unwavering enthusiasm for decentralization and web3, positions me as an ideal candidate for the role. I am excited about the prospect of contributing my skills and passion to your esteemed team.

Sincerely,
T R Zuhaib Mohammed (zuhaibmd.eth)
